

Talking to someone who gets it really makes a difference.

Being in the banking/lending industry has given me a great lead into being a mortgage adviser. Besides having children this is one of the best decisions I have made! I love what I do and after all these years, I still get excited by allowing people's dreams to become a reality! This could be by helping them into their first home, investment portfolio or beach property. My focus is to make things as easy as possible, so that my clients can actually enjoy this time. A lot of my business now comes from client referrals which is the best testimonial I could ever ask for! In my own time I like to spend it with my family, drinking good wine and keeping fit!

- Asset Finance
- XE Money

I am unable to offer legal or tax advice and recommend you consult your solicitor or accountant for this type of advice.

Fees and expenses

Generally you won't be charged any fees for the financial advice I provide to you. This is possible because, on settlement of a loan, the lender usually pays commission to me [which is explained in the commission section of this Disclosure Guide]. Any exceptions to this general position are explained below. If these exceptions will apply to you, I will let you know.

One-off fees

I may charge you a one-off fee if the following occurs:

(a) There's no commission: If you request that I provide financial advice and I do not receive a commission from the lender, I may charge you a one-off fee. Any such fee would be agreed and authorised by you in writing before I complete the services, and would be based on an estimate of the time spent providing the advice.

This may arise in the rare event that you request that I provide services in relation to either a product that is offered by a lender that I do not hold an accreditation with, or a product that is outside my usual arrangements with my approved lenders.

(b) Commission has to be repaid: If you make certain changes to your loan, the lender can require me to repay to them the commission I received for your loan - this is called a 'clawback' and can be up to 100% of the commission. If this occurs, I may charge you a one-off fee. Set out below are the circumstances in which this would apply and the fee that would be charged to you.

Changes that trigger a clawback	Relevant time period	Amount & calculation of one-off fee
Your loan is fully or partially repaid or the terms materially changed.	The changes occur in the 28 month period following drawdown of your loan.	Generally no more than $3,000 (plus GST, if any). Calculated based on a rate of $250 (plus GST, if any) per hour of my time spent providing advice to you in connection with the applicable loan. The fee would not exceed the amount of commission that needs to be repaid to the lender.

You will be invoiced for any one-off fee and will be given 30 days to make payment.

Adviser fee

Some lenders charge a fee which is capitalised (or added) to the amount of your loan. This fee is normally calculated as a percentage of your loan at drawdown but can be a flat fee. Please see tables 1 & 2 at the back of the guide for further information.

Commissions & incentives

Commissions & incentives that apply to me:

On settlement of a loan, the lender usually provides me with a commission payment.

The commission is generally an upfront commission payment but an ongoing commission payment may also be paid by the lender. The upfront commission is calculated as a percentage of the loan at drawdown. An ongoing commission is calculated as a percentage of the loan outstanding at the relevant time.

I may also receive a fixed rate roll over fee from the lender if I assist in refixing your loan.

The maximum percentage that each lender uses to calculate upfront and ongoing commissions, and the maximum fixed rate roll over fees (refix fees), are set out in the table 3 at the back of this guide. If there are any variations to these percentages or other commission payments that may apply, specific to your loan application, I will disclose this to you as part of my advice process.

I may also receive a referral fee or commission payment if I refer you to our referral partners.

Commission payments or referral fees can be paid in different ways:

- Paid in full to a financial adviser.
- Shared between two or more financial advisers.
- Paid to an employer who then pays a financial adviser a salary.
- Paid in full to a financial adviser's company, from which the financial adviser takes drawings or profit share.
- Shared with a licence holder to cover the costs of the services they provide.

I can provide you with more information to explain which option applies to me.

Occasionally I may receive incentives or rewards from lenders or referral partners. For example, lenders may provide us with gifts, tickets to events or other incentives.

I manage the conflicts of interest arising from these commission payments, referral fees or incentives by:

- Following an advice process that ensures I understand your needs and goals so that I always recommend the best loan for you regardless of the type and amount of commission or other payments I may receive.
- Ensuring the amount of any loan is in accordance with your identified needs.
- Providing you with tables showing commission rates and types by lender.
- Undertaking regular training on how to manage conflicts of interest.

Other conflicts of interest

I will be paid a fee if I facilitate or refer you to Kōura Wealth Limited and you join the Kōura KiwiSaver Scheme. I am a member of the New Zealand Financial Services Group Limited, which holds a partial ownership in Kōura Wealth Limited. New Zealand Financial Services Group will benefit from any growth in the Kōura KiwiSaver Scheme which is likely to arise from me referring clients to the Kōura KiwiSaver Scheme.

I follow a stringent process to identify any insurance needs the client may have and will refer you to our insurance adviser Zak White to discuss further if it is an area you need to review. Zak follows a robust advice process to help mitigate this conflict which means he will always put client interests at the forefront of his advice. Part of his process means he will review the client's individual circumstances, goals, and any existing cover in place to ensure that anything he recommends will be the most suitable solution for the client based on their current and future known needs and objectives. If you were to take up personal protection insurance through Priority Life Limited, I would be eligible for 15% of the upfront net commission.

If during our conversations we identify the need for Fire & General Insurance then we can refer you to our business partner, Bridges Insurance. For any successful referral to them we will receive a range between 10-24% of the total commission, depending on which policy or policies you choose to take out.

To mitigate this conflict Bridges Insurance follows an advice process and will look at your own individual situation before tailoring solutions to your needs.

You are not obliged to proceed with their recommendations.

To ensure I prioritise my clients' interests, I follow a robust 6 step advice process that ensures my recommendations are made appropriately based on clients' goals and circumstances. I maintain registers of conflicts of interests and the gifts and incentives I receive - this is monitored regularly. I also undergo annual training and undertake Compliance Assurance Reviews.

Privacy policy & security

I will collect personal information about you in accordance with my Privacy Policy. I regard client confidentiality as of paramount importance. I will not disclose any confidential information obtained from or about you to any other person, except in accordance with my Privacy Policy.

Our Privacy Policy outlines that we may share your personal information with NZ Financial Services Group Limited for audit purposes. This ensures that we deliver services in your best interests and comply with current regulations. If you disagree with this, please email team@nzfsg.co.nz and inform me, as I won't be able to provide financial advice services to you.

The electronic platform I use to store your personal information is secure and run on Amazon Web Services.

Complaints Process

If you have a complaint about my financial advice or the service I gave you, you need to tell me about it. You can contact my internal complaints service by phoning, or emailing me [Subject line: Complaint - Your Name]. Please set out the nature of your complaint, and the resolution you are seeking. I aim to acknowledge receipt of this within 24 hours. I will then record your complaint in our Complaints Register and will work with you to resolve your complaint. I may want to meet with you to better understand your issues. I aim to provide an answer to you within 7 working days of receiving your complaint. If we cannot agree on a resolution you can refer your complaint to our external dispute resolution service. This service is independent and will cost you nothing and will assist us to resolve things with you. The name of this service and their contact details are:
